

Tuesday 16th October

Agenda

- Introduce Mr Lumb's challenge to rename the 'house'.
- Tour of the 'house'.
- Name ideas
- What a good TA looks like.
- What an interview is like.

Absent:

Cherry Class

Introduce Mr Lumb's challenge to rename the 'house'.

- SC have been given the challenge to re-name the 'house' after its restructure.

Tour of the 'house'.

- We went on a tour of the 'house' and found out that a 'house' is an incorrect name. There are no bedrooms or front rooms! Upstairs there are offices where the inclusion team work.

Name ideas

- At first the children were unsure of new names so we talked about building names in London to help us.
- The list of names:
  - The Calming Castle
  - Children's Support
  - The Observatory
  - Carr Manor
  - Hunslet's Comfort Zone
  - The OB (Office Building)
  - The Hive
  - Triple H (Hunslet's Helping Hand)
  - The Hub
  - The Hunslet Eye

What a good TA looks like

What an interview is like

- On Monday there is an interview for a new Teaching Assistant in Early Years.
- The children all discussed what a good TA looks like.
- Most of the children came up with the same qualities, such as kind, caring, helpful.
- We discussed how, when conducting the interview, that they listen carefully to what each candidate is saying.