What do the classes think about our point system & how it is displayed?

- Stars around the winner, gold for the winner & silver for second
- Poster to show the winner
- Coloured flags for the winner,
- Bigger tokens
- Maybe even get rid of the tubes & replace with something else.
- Move the tube to somewhere else
- Diamonds / fake jewellery around the winning team
- Display the winning team each week so at the end you can see who has won the most times
- Prize for winning teams eg golden playtime.
- Rainbow numbers for totals
- Spotlight on the winner

Who is Ben Smith & what is the 401 Challenge?

- We looked on the internet to find out about the challenge and discovered that Ben Smith had completed 401 marathons in 401 days. We were suitably impressed.

Next steps /AOB:

- To tell each class about the 401 Challenge
